(s) This plan features split physician office visit copayments. Enrollees in these plans will pay a higher copayment when they see specialists than when they see primary care physicians. The above medical rates include any selected riders.

The costs of coverage described herein is contingent on, among other things, the Employer Participant meeting all eligibility criteria of the Association Health Plan (AHP), being a member in good standing with the AHP, and executing all documents required by the AHP.

The Service Fee is payment to an individual or entity selected by the Association Health Plan for plan related services provided specifically to the Association Health Plan and its employer participants. Service fee is not a contingency of coverage of the insurer but it might be required by your Association. We remit this payment to the selected service fee provider.

The Association Management Fee is a payment from you to the Association that allows you to access the plan. Management Fee is not a contingency of coverage of the insurer but may be required by your Association. The Management Fee should not be paid with employee contributions and, consequently, we have separated it from rates in order to make it easier for you to determine employee contribution amounts. We remit the Management Fee to the Association on your behalf. The Management Fee is represented above as monthly fee but your association may elect to recoup this fee on a monthly, quarterly or annual basis. Please check with your Association regarding the applicability and timing of the fee.

The total monthly amount derived from rate tiers listed above. This amount incorporates premium expenses and separate Service Fee. Case stipulations, including but not limited to participation/contribution/management fee requirements, are specific to each Association Health Plan (AHP). Final medical and rx plan combinations must be approved prior to install. Please contact your UnitedHealthcare Account Executive for clarification.

UeS rates are preliminary rates and final rates will be provided by Underwriting.

++ Total Monthly Cost = Estimated Cost of Coverage (premium) + Monthly Service Fee + Monthly Management Fee.

(s) This plan features split physician office visit copayments. Enrollees in these plans will pay a higher copayment when they see specialists than when they see primary care physicians. The above medical rates include any selected riders.

The costs of coverage described herein is contingent on, among other things, the Employer Participant meeting all eligibility criteria of the Association Health Plan (AHP), being a member in good standing with the AHP, and executing all documents required by the AHP.

The Service Fee is payment to an individual or entity selected by the Association Health Plan for plan related services provided specifically to the Association Health Plan and its employer participants. Service fee is not a contingency of coverage of the insurer but it might be required by your Association. We remit this payment to the selected service fee provider.

The Association Management Fee is a payment from you to the Association that allows you to access the plan. Management Fee is not a contingency of coverage of the insurer but may be required by your Association. The Management Fee should not be paid with employee contributions and, consequently, we have separated it from rates in order to make it easier for you to determine employee contribution amounts. We remit the Management Fee to the Association on your behalf. The Management Fee is represented above as monthly fee but your association may elect to recoup this fee on a monthly, quarterly or annual basis. Please check with your Association regarding the applicability and timing of the fee.

The total monthly amount derived from rate tiers listed above. This amount incorporates premium expenses and separate Service Fee. Case stipulations, including but not limited to participation/contribution/management fee requirements, are specific to each Association Health Plan (AHP). Final medical and rx plan combinations must be approved prior to install. Please contact your UnitedHealthcare Account Executive for clarification.

UeS rates are preliminary rates and final rates will be provided by Underwriting.

++ Total Monthly Cost = Estimated Cost of Coverage (premium) + Monthly Service Fee + Monthly Management Fee.

Information about HRA/HSA Contribution Requirements under the Affordable Care Act (ACA)

Our goal is to help you understand how the contributions you make to your employees' HSAs and integrated HRAs can affect the actuarial value of your health plan. Under the Affordable Care Act (ACA), plan sponsors are required to offer health coverage to their employees that falls within one of four metallic levels of coverage. Each metallic level has its own range of permitted actuarial values. UnitedHealthcare, as a health insurance issuer, is also obligated to only offer health coverage that falls within the four metallic levels.

It is important to understand that the amount of the contributions that you make to your employees' HSAs or integrated HRAs have an impact on the actuarial value of every plan design we offer to you. Further, with respect to an integrated HRA, the available contribution ranges shown in this proposal/renewal packet are specific to the particular type of HRA (Standard or Select, see definitions below) we have available in your market. We will gladly work with you to make sure you understand the HRA plans available in your market.

Why this is important

Making sure that the employer contribution to HSAs or HRAs fall into the designated dollar amount ranges helps ensure that your plan meets the actuarial value for the metallic level of coverage you have elected for your health plan offering and that you maintain compliance with the requirements of the ACA. Failing to make the contributions as indicated may mean that your selected plan falls below the actuarial value for the metallic level while funding at an amount above may mean the actuarial value for the metallic level has been exceeded. In either circumstance your plan will not be compliant with the requirements of the ACA.

We are offering you the plan you have chosen for your employees based on the understanding that your contributions to your employees' HSA or HRA will be made as set forth in the proposal for new customers or, for existing customers, in the renewal plan documents. In addition, contributions must be available to employees on the first day of the plan year.

If you do not intend to make the contributions or intend to change the amount or timing of the contributions, it may mean that your plans will not fall within the appropriate metallic level and thus may not be compliant with the ACA. We want to ensure that does not happen so are asking that you please contact your UnitedHealthcare representative to let them know of any changes to your plan or to the amount and/or timing of the HSA/HRA contributions you intend to make.

Please take these steps to ensure compliance

1. If you are a new customer, please review the contribution amounts for the plan you have selected. These amounts are shown in your final proposal from UnitedHealthcare. If you are an existing customer, please review the contribution amounts that are shown in your renewal plan documents. If you do not have the appropriate document, please contact your UnitedHealthcare representative, who can provide the information to you.
2. Please make the required HSA/HRA contribution so that it is available on the first day of the plan year.
3. For HRA plans, please ensure that your HRA plan design is such that HRA amounts may only be used to reimburse employees for cost sharing amounts under your plan.
4. Please note your HRA must adhere to the UnitedHealthcare HRA Standard or Select product design available in your market. (See description below.)
5. Please inform us at least 30 days in advance of any plan changes to your plan.

We are committed to ensuring the ACA is implemented successfully and that you, as our customer, know the necessary actions to take. We are here to help you throughout this process, so if you have questions please contact your UnitedHealthcare representative.

UnitedHealthcare Standard HRA plans are available in Alabama, Arizona, Arkansas, Connecticut, Delaware, Florida, Georgia, Idaho, Louisiana, Maine, Maryland, Massachusetts, Mississippi, Montana, Nebraska, Nevada, New Hampshire, New Jersey, New York, North Carolina, North Dakota, Pennsylvania, Rhode Island, South Carolina, South Dakota, Tennessee, Utah, Virginia, Washington, and West Virginia. Standard HRAs (also known as first dollar HRAs) are designed to pay 100% of the initial claims until the HRA is depleted. The member is then responsible for payment of additional claims until the deductible is satisfied. The maximum HRA contribution amount is equal to 50% of the deductible.

UnitedHealthcare Select HRA plans are available in California, Colorado, Iowa, Illinois, Indiana, Kansas, Kentucky, Michigan, Missouri, New Mexico, Ohio, Oklahoma, Oregon, Texas, Wisconsin and Wyoming, as Shared or Split. Shared HRA plans pay a percentage of first dollar qualifying expenses up to the HRA contribution limit. The employee is responsible for the remaining percentage of first dollar qualifying expenses. Split Deductible HRA (also called second dollar) plans are designed so the employee is responsible for the first 50% of expenses applying to the deductible; then the Employer funded HRA pays for subsequent qualifying expenses up to the HRA contribution limit. The maximum Employer HRA funding for both Shared and Split Deductible is equal to 50% of the deductible.
